Boy Scout Show To Include Well Known Magician

The talents of well-known magician Jay Bedsworth, will be on display tonight at the Orinda Boy Scout troop 207 Variety Show.

Bedsworth will perform, along with Chief Lone Eagle, and a full chorus of 14 of the best singers in the Barber Shop group.

Ticket sales, according to Stanley Hunn, Scoutmaster and committeeman in charge, are going at a brisk rate and will be on sale at the door.

Scouts have been ringing doorbells and buttonholing just about every resident of the area, each in an effort to win prizes being offered by the committee for the Scouts selling the most tickets.

More donations of merchandise have come in from area merchants. Cakes, coffee, and cokes will be served to the audience by the Scouts, who hope to realize from this affair a fund to take care of their share of Scout House expenses, and to allow them expenses for hikes and other outings for the coming year.

Orinda Girl Scouts Plan Tree Sale

Plans are now going forward for another Girl Scout Christmas Tree Sale, proceeds of which will be set aside to purchase permanent camp equipment, according to Mrs. Louise Galbraith, Orinda area chairman.

This sale is an area-wide affair with participation by the entire Diablo Valley Girl Scout Area.

William Gordon of Lafayette has offered to obtain trees for the girls and Mrs. Galbraith is in charge of scheduling parents to sell the trees.

Other activities in the offing for Orinda Girl Scouts include a leaders meeting on October 4, 10:30 a.m. at the Scout office in Walnut Creek. Basic training for new leaders has just been completed after a week-long session of instruction.

General Meeting Held Last Night

At the general meeting of the Orinda Association last night at the Orinda Grammar Schcool at 8 p.m., Dr. Charles Camp was guest speaker.

Gael Piepenburg, pianist, played several selections.

President Ritchie Smith spoke on the aims and objects of the Orinda Association. The primary purpose of the meeting was to welcome new residents.

Oak Springs Pool Closes for Year

The Oak Springs pool closed on Sunday. The organization, however, will continue activities throughout the winter with a regular meeting the second Monday of each month and an occasional box social.

At the meeting next Monday at the Club house the group will discuss the Hallowe'en costume party to be given October 30.

DR. CHARLES L. CAMP

Camps Reveal Findings in Africa After 14 Month Scientific Trip

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Camp and son Charles Jr. have arrived back home in Orinda after 14 months with the University of California's $500,000 South African scientific expedition.

Though stressing that it will take over 5 years to fully catalogue and evaluate the expedition's findings, Dr. Camp, who supervised the group, cautiously revealed at a press conference the discovery of a creature who may be "the predecessor of the human race."

HUMAN PREDECESSOR

This fellow was toddling around Africa about a million years ago, before man had learned to use fire or to make the crudest tools. He was approximately 3½-4 feet tall and walked erect. To slay baboons he merely conked them over the head with a stick, devouring the meat raw.

Dr. Camp, whose particular interest is paleontology, spent most of his time at an excavation site 100 miles north of Kimberly. Charles Jr., 22, was appointed by the University as the expedition's Musicologist.

He made more than 1,000 recordings of native songs, music and rhythm, including what may be the last of the Hottentot music. Dr. Camp described this native music as "probably the most thrilling thing in Africa".

MRS. CAMP HOSTESS

Mrs. Camp was selected by the University as official expedition hostess and counted among her problems housekeeping and entertaining in Central Africa.

In telling the press conference of the expedition's work, Dr. Camp stated that "the various units were permitted to take off to the places they particularly wanted to visit. One group went up to study the bushmen, for instance. These people live now much as they did 25,000 years ago."

The phsychologists in the team studying the bushmen found that instead of being examples of utmost happiness, the polygamous habits of these natives give them psychoses and neuroses, Dr. Camp added. "In other words, they have their own problems."

APE-MAN BONES

In regard to the ape-man or man-ape, he told the press that several pieces of bone were found, one of which was a perfect thigh bone 11 inches long. From this was caluclated the probable height of the pre-historic creature.

The expedition estimates that the bones are about 1,000,000 years old but the University's radiation laboratory will be asked if they can work out a means for guaging the exact age.

FIND THE ANSWER

"We finally found a native tribe who gave us the answer," Dr. Camp said. "Old men in the tribe told us the baboons would go into caves at night to sleep. The natives waited for them in the morning and hit them on the head with sticks as they came out. Thus as recently as 50 years ago, natives killed baboons in what was probably the same manner employed by the ancient apeman."

The Camps gave an informal discussion along these same lines at a special welcome home party at the Orinda Grammar School last night.

This affair also honored all new Orinda residents. Dr. Camp, who is a professor of Paleontology at the University lives on Haciendas Road with his family, which includes three school-age children who did not make the trip.

Hostesses Handle Introductions of New People

Each area in Orinda was assigned its hostess in order to introduce new members of the community to older residents at the Town Meeting which took place last night.

E. Wickman and Mrs. Dick Laney, the El Toyonal district.

Mrs. G. W. Miller Jr. and Mrs. Vall Brookes greeted the residents of the "right hand side of the Lake" district; Mrs. Dave Wallace, Mrs. John McFarland, Mrs. Jess Schwarck, the Country Club area. Mrs. Richard Dunnigan served for the Oak Springs, Davis and Overhill Rd., Camino Encinas and upper Orchard Road.

Mrs. Anthony Cianciarulo welcomed residents of the Moraga Highway, Orchard Road, and Estates Drive district to Glorietta; Mrs. Ken Morrish, the Glorietta area; Mrs. F. Ray Devin and Mrs. George Horton, the lower portion of Moraga Highway, Oak Drive, Moraga Woodlands, and Moraga Del Rey areas.

The other two were in El Sobrante.

There were no deaths, Dr. W. A. Powell, county health officer, said.

In the state as a whole, there were 339 cases, an increase of 126 over the previous week, with 111 of these in Los Angeles County.

State Allots Funds To Widen Highway

Central Contra Costa's long and hard-fought struggle for elimination of the two- and three-lane death traps on Mt. Diablo Boulevard between Walnut Creek and Chest."
the Tunnel ended in victory Wednesday.

C. H. Purcell, state director of public works, announced that $353,000 will be alloted for the "widening and surfacing of six and a half miles of State Route 24 from three and a half miles east of Broadway Tunnel to Route 107." The funds are to be included in the budget for 1949-50, which starts July 1, 1949.

NO DETAILS YET

Although details are not yet available, it is understood that this will mean widening and re-aligning the dangerous three-lane stretches of highway and will include work on certain busy intersections. Intersections at Charles Hill Road, Upper Happy Valley and Martinez Cut-off are considered the most hazardous.

The concise announcement did not reveal if the two-lane highway into Walnut Creek will be widened.

OTHER PROJECTS

The $353,000 is part of $1,292,000 allocated to highway work in Contra Costa County. Other projects listed are:

For grading and building structures on 1.4 miles of state route 4 from Brentwood Junction to Byron Road, $77,000.

For grading and building structures on 4.7 miles of state route 24 from Port Chicago Road to Pittsburg, $862,000.

Purcell stated the money will be available because of increased gas tax revenues under the Collier-Burns act. Before passage of the act in 1947, only $34,000,000 was available for use for all purposes on state highways.

Scout Fund Drive Opens Friday

Representatives of Boy and Girl Scouts in the area will begin their two-week campaign Friday seeking a combined fund of $17,500.

This sum is based on budgets prepared by Boy and Girl Scout finance committees that have worked together for several months, analyzing the needs of the organizations for their activities and operations within the area.

MEMBERSHIP UP

Both groups have registered an increase in membership of about 25 per cent during the last year, from a scant 800 members each to more than 1000 apiece. An additional 250 members was conservatively estimated by both Boy and Girl Scouts as the inevitable increase during the next twelve months. By the end of 1949 the combined memberships in the area will run more than 2500.

Working with T. K. Ulyatt of Lafayette as community chairmen are the following: John Rasmussen, Alamo and Danville; A. L. Studebaker, Lafayette; Mrs. John Gompertz, Orinda; Ed Young, Pleasant Hill; Leo Rahill, Walnut Creek; and Jo. Shockey, Ygnacio.

TELL OF NEED

In a joint statement issued by Mrs. John W. Fry, Lafayette, President of the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council, and Jo Shockey, Ygnacio, Boy Scout Commissioner for this district, the significance of the Scout groups here is summarized thus:

"The two Scout groups are the only agencies of Community Chest rank in the whole of the Diablo Valley Area. Where large cities must support forty or more Chest agencies through their contributions, our communities have but two to consider and these two in a single campaign.

EXPECT SUPPORT

"Because of the high basic principles of scouting and its special appeal to girls and boys of all ages in our favored section of California, we are optimistic enough to hope that appropriate support of these groups may long delay the day when we shall need any other Chest agencies here.

"We sincerely appeal to the traditional generosity of the people of Alamo, Danville, Lafayette, Orinda, Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek and Ygnacio to support the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts as they would the whole Community

Civic Affairs Committee Lays Plans For Landscaping, Cleaning Grounds

The Civic Affairs Committee decided to concentrate on pushing through three projects at their meeting Monday night at the Fire House:

First, installing gates at the entrance to the Community Center property. This project is now under construction with donations from the following people: Bud Coburn is laying the foundation; Herb Teachout is handling the Masonry; and William 'Got Rocks' Gordon is supplying the rocks. Marvin Bond is donating the brass plaque for dedication inscription.

Second, Cleaning up and landscaping Community Center property. The group decided to send a letter to County Sheriff Long's office requesting that County prisoners be detailed to clean up the property.

Mrs. Malcolm Lamb was requested to ask the Orinda Garden Club to obtain a master landscape plan for the Community Center grounds.

Third, preparing for installation of tennis courts on the Community Center property.

The group also studied a projected floor plan for the community building. The plan will provide for all the needs of all the organizations in the community, members said.

A telephone committee was formed at the meeting to conduct an intensive campaign to collect the $1600 balance of unpaid pledges on the community center finance campaign held some months ago.

PERHAPS THIS HORSE will be one of the last tragedies caused by the three lane death trap on Mt. Diablo now that the State has allocated money for the widening of the highway. This bay mare, belonging to O. W. Van Cleave, was killed about 2 o'clock Saturday morning. The horse's mate had been taken out of the pasture and it evidently was hunting its mate and jumped the fence. — Photo by Mattson.

P. O. Box 806, Lafayette P. O. Box 147, Orinda

Entered as second-class matter June 17, 1943, at the post office at Lafayette, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879. Printed at 1 Moraga Road, Lafayette.

I helped to build the first automobile I ever drove.

It had Tiller steering, no wind shield, no lights, no differential, no horn, solid tires, etc. I was a road tester, race driver, demonstrator, salesman, manager, etc. I have driven automobiles in many lands, under different and strange conditions; but I still do not believe in driving the horn.

I saw a rooster fly on the steering wheel of a car once and sound the horn. Any nitwit can do it. Not many seem to wish to achieve the skill necessary for good safe driving.

I was endeavoring to make a left turn having come slowly to the intersection and had made a bold left turn signal. One driver bearing down on the horn, with an oath yelled to me in passing, "Get off the highway."

Someday soon, I hope, something very drastic will be done to cure permanently the homicidal attitude of a very large percentage of our drivers.

The other day I was going North on Commercial Street in Lafayette by the Associated Station, intention to cross the highway and turn west.

A man digging in a trench yelled to me, "Go ahead there! Pull up."

The traffic signal showed red. If I had obeyed that man's instructions, I would have been smashed to smithereens because an enormous truck and trailer, proceeding east, sailed right through at high speed.

What is this man? Trench digger? Traffic officer? Executioner?

I am afraid that gophers are somewhat like Scotchmen. They don't seem to understand when they are beaten. And now my beautiful petunias are bowing and sashaying like ballet dancers. Nuts. I am not beaten yet. I will raise the very dickens with these babies before I get through. Period.

Drove two horses in my trailer to Richmond show on Sunday. On the dam road just beyond Orinda saw a beautiful buck. He was a dandy. I was sorely tempted to strip down to my BVD's and take after him, and bulldog the son-of-a-gun. However, I didn't. I was going to the Show, besides I am still a trifle lame.

An Open Letter to the East Bay M. U. D.

John Longwell,
General Manager
East Bay Municipal Utility District
Oakland, California

SUBJECTS: (1) Water tanks on the hills of Lafayette and Orinda;
(2) Policy on cutting through of Las Vegas Road in Orinda to Charles Hill Road in Lafayette.

Dear Mr. Longwell:

This letter is written to secure information on subjects of definite interest to the people of Lafayette and Orinda.

We have noticed that water tanks in increasing numbers are being constructed on the tops of hills throughout our area. There is no question as to their necessity and most of us are not so shortsighted as to attempt to thwart progress in behalf of keeping the status quo.

However, at the same time, our beautiful country side is being marred by the giant tanks, which stand out like beacons in their aluminum finish. It does not appear that your district is taking steps to landscape them or camouflage them.

This statement, however, is based on casual observation and not investigation. We realize that a tree planted six months ago will not hide the tank by now. So we ask, as did the Lafayette Improvement Association many months ago, what action has been and will be taken to ease the eye sores?

More important, however, than this is what plans does the district have for future water storage in our area?

With some 11,000 to 12,000 people in the Lafayette-Orinda area today, we see many new East Bay Mud tanks popping up. How long will it be before we can boast of 20,000, then 30,000 and even 50,000? True, this won't be tomorrow or next year, but it won't be too many years.

Will the number of storage tanks increase proportionately to our growth of population? If so, our tree-laden hills will become dotted with water tanks.

But instead of speculation, we assume your engineers have plans on the drawing boards and the district is prepared for our future growth. This is the information we respectfully request.

We wish also to inquire as to the District's present position on selling the short strip of land between Las Vegas Road and Charles Hill Road. Undoubtedly you are cognizant of the need for extending Las Vegas through to Charles Hill.

The residents in the Las Vegas Road area would save miles via Charles Hill Road to the Highway. In addition, it will offer much greater fire protection to both areas, better routing of school buses and a closer link between communities.

We are cognizant of the opposition to this by a very few families living right on Charles Hill Road. They contend that Charles Hill Road and the intersection at the highway are dangerous and more traffic would make it increasingly so. This can be appreciated by all concerned. But Charles Hill Rd. is a county road and its maintenance and improvement are under the County's jurisdiction. We may assume that the county will re-construct the road when burdened with additional traffic.

The extension of Las Vegas Road through the property owned by the East Bay Municipal Utilities District is bound to come. It is progress. We wish to help clarify the facts and thus inquire of your present policy on this subject.

We thank you in advance for your prompt attention.

Sincerely yours,
HERMAN SILVERMAN
Editor

Orinda's Dawson Girls Take to Horses And Ride Bareback, Western, English

By ADA M. MORGAN

There are still many old-time residents of this district who recall the days when fences stretched over the hills and valleys few and far between. Then the wild oats grew half-way up a horse's sides.

Prior to the fence period, and as late as 1855, the lush pastures of early California had been so kind to the increasing number of cattle and horses roaming the land that, in some sections, where increase was too rapid, the bands of wild horses ate what was needed for the cattle, and over-pasturing occurred.

WILD HORSES

Then the Rancheros built pens with outspread wings, the wild horses were driven into them and slaughtered. In later years the best were saved, to be broken and used.

It took many horses to handle the huge cattle industry of old Contra Costa County. Even now, although the days of the cattle kings and barons here are a thing of the past, this industry is very active and many head of cattle graze among the hills cut by the car-teeming highway east of the tunnel.

In 1900 there were 30,755 head of cattle in the county. In 1935 there were 33,202. Before then there probably were more.

GOOD HORSEMEN

It just naturally follows that wherever cattle are raised on the open range there, also, will be found horsemen. Good ones. And horse-women, too.

An old-time horsewoman, who rode the range helping her father with the cattle on their ranch in the Orinda hills before the 1900's recounted to me how he rather shocked the community by allowing her and her sister to ride astride. In fact, he insisted upon it, in a day when side-saddles were in order for ladies.

"You girls ride cross-saddles," he declared, "for this type of work is too dangerous riding side-saddle."

The days of the side-saddle are gone, but, whether riding bareback, western or flat-saddle, horsemen and horsewomen still enjoy riding these hills.

Western and flat-saddles, both, interest the two Dawson girls of Orinda. Just so they're on horses.

Barbara, 14 years old, and Diane, 11, are the daughters of Mrs. Eileen Dawson, and have ridden just about as long as they can remember.

That was bareback and western. Now with a newly purchased English saddle to practice with, they are starting lessons to learn that method of riding.

DAWSON'S HORSES

The Dawsons have owned a variety of horses. The last six were Saddle-breds, Morgan cross-breds and just plain horses of stock-horse type. There have been mares and geldings and colts.

At the present time two horses make up their stable. There is a gaited Saddle-bred mare, Top Supreme, purchased from the Rheem Ranch at Moraga. And a two-year-old filly, Juanita, from this mare and a Rheem's Morgan stallion.

The filly is just being started, and the trainer is helping Barbara in getting started with the colt, for she also is riding it.

All three of the Dawsons enjoy their horses, and it probably won't be long before the girls are seen showing their mounts. The girls are all for it, with Mama being a little reluctant, but I'll predict she'll have to weaken!

For, living in a district rich in background of early-day horsemen and horsewomen and cattlemen doings, it is not too easy to remain completely unconscious of the appeal the old hills put forth, if you like horses, to also come and ride their trails and enjoy horses everyway possible.

Bids on Two Orinda Sewer Pumping Plants to Be Opened October 14

Construction of two pumping stations in Orinda by the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District will begin very soon, it was learned at last week's meeting of the Sanitary Board in Walnut Creek.

The Board approved plans and specifications for the two pumping stations and issued a call for bids. Now being advertised, the bids will be opened October 14.

As the main sewer trunk line over Charles Hill toward Orinda nears completion and installation of the pumping plants is begun, Orinda becomes that much closer to having a sewage system.

One pumping station will be located at Miner Road and Orinda Highway. From here sewage will be pumped to a point on Camino Sobrante above the Orinda Country Club pool, from where it will be carried by gravity to a point at the head of Lake Cascade.

The second pumping station will be situated at the head of Lake Cascade pumping sewage to the top of Charles Hill. Gravity then does the work through Lafayette, Walnut Creek and to the disposal plant.

The pumping stations will be stucco buildings. Electric pumps will be used, but with gas pumps installed for emergencies.

Your Garden IN LAFAYETTE AND ORINDA

BY CONSTANCE HANSEN

Time passes fast enough anyway, heaven knows, but writing this garden column makes it fairly tear along — it seems like no time at all since I was writing the garden calendar for September. It makes me think of some lines in one of Edna St. Vincent Millay's poems:

"I know that summer scarcely here,
Is gone for yet another year."

Bulb-planting begins in earnest in October. The memory of spring daffodils and other lovely bulb flowers has faded by now, but think back to the ones you saw and liked then, and get some in your own garden as soon as possible, so they can get well started for next spring.

Jonquils are a 'must' for the earliest bloom, and for fragrance. They are nice with grape hyacinths, and multiply almost as fast. The scillas, the English and Spanish blue bells, or squills, are equally easy to grow and will naturalize under fruit trees to make sheets of blue in spring.

TIME FOR GLADIOLUS

Try planting gladiolus now for early bloom and see if you don't have less trouble from thrips than from spring- planted bulbs. When planting most bulbs it helps to put a little bonemeal in the hole or trench and cover with a layer of soil before setting them out, so that the bulbs do not come in direct contact with the fertilizer, but the roots can find it as they grow down.

Most lily bulbs will be available for planting this month and the next, so be sure to try a clump or two. They are true garden aristocrats, although not hard to grow, if you pick the right ones, and in combination with delphinium and perennial phlox create very elegant effects.

You can start ranunculus roots in flats this month, and then when they are 3 or 4 inches tall set them out. By this time they will be tough enough so the birds won't bother them.

New lawns may still be put in this month, and the bare spots in the old ones raked hard, fertilized and reseeded. Apply fertilizer at the rate of 40 pounds per thousand square feet, let stand two or three days, and then scatter the lawn seed. The whole lawn may then be mulched with pulverized, well-decomposed manure, preferably the weed-free kind that comes from the stockyards.

CULTIVATE SHRUBS

This is a good time to put on the fall mulch of well-rotted manure, compost, or leafmold around the shrubs, roses, berries, fruit trees, and asparagus. Put it on two or three inches deep if possible. The acid-loving plants, azaleas, camellias, and such can be mulched too, with pine needles, or leafmold before the rains start.

Most chrysanthemums have buds or are getting ready to have them, so see that the plants are well staked and tied, so they won't flop on the ground and grow into odd shapes. Every year I seem to try and see how late I can plant chrysanthemums and still have them bloom. This year I was later than ever, with the rooted cuttings still in flats well into August. But in spite of such late planting the plants are looking very well, and the early varieties already are in bud.

ADVANTAGES

The beauty of such late planting is that the plants need only the one pinching when they are set out, and don't grow tall enough to make staking such a problem as it is when they are planted at the more usual time in May or June. If you're growing any exhibition mums, go over them every few days to rub out the lateral buds. When this is done early enough there are no ugly stubs left to detract from the finished blossom. Don't forget to pay at least one visit this month or early in November to the chrysanthemum garden at Lake Merritt Park, as the display increases in beauty each year, and is well worth going to see several times each season.

It's a good idea to use an all-purpose insecticide and fungicide spray throughout the garden now. Spray especially for scale insects. Citrus fruits are very liable to have scale and infestations now, sometimes more than one kind. If you see ants streamng up the stems, follow them to their destination, and they will very often lead you to scale insects. If only a twig or small branch is infested, it can be clipped off, but it's good insurance to spray the whole plant.

The bedding plants, such as snaps, stocks, pansies, and violas are still available for planting this month. The pansies and violas are good covers for the bulb bed. Delphinium plants set out now will be good-sized by next spring. If you have a nice warm spot in the garden, try some of the newer pot marigolds, or calendulas.

Orinda Nursery School Closes Lists until 1949

Flourishing to the point that all previous records of enrollment have been shattered, the Orinda Nursery School Association recently announced that until the spring semester, 1949, no more names will be added to their visiting list.

It appears that future expansion of the organization will be inevitable if the present growth continues, according to the organization's officers.

Scheduled for October 13 in the Orinda Community Church is an instructive program for all the mothers to be conducted by Mrs. W. A. Patterson and Mrs. Robert Anthonisen, directors of the older and younger groups respectively.

A Little Dickering, and Local Men Decide to Back County Hospital Plan

By POLITICUS

The Central Contra Costa Memorial Hospital Association will support the proposal for a County-wide hospital district instead of their own plan for a local hospital district, as a result of meetings with the Board of Supervisors Monday in Martinez.

It took a little dickering, more than a little maneuvering and a lot of talking on both sides before this was brought about.

After working hard for several years to form a hospital district in the Orinda-Lafayette-Walnut Creek-Danville area and even after seeing that the measure would be on the ballot this November, top men of the local Association thought it wise to reconsider their project.

CHANGE MIND

They've been studying the Hamilton plan for a series of hospitals in the county. Just a very short time ago, the members came to the conclusion that this area would have a better chance to get a hospital sooner and at lower cost if we became a part of the county wide district.

But since this section of the county has always been treated like a stepchild when the plums were handed out, the local men wanted a few promises before joining forces with the proponents of the other plan. Incidentally, the Supervisors favor the county-wide district.

Feelers were sent out by the local men.

If the county-wide district is approved by the voters, would the Supervisors guarantee that:

They will appoint men to the county hospital board who are in favor of constructing a hospital in this area as soon as one is built in Richmond. Or that they will provide funds for the local hospital in the first bond issue presented.

REPRESENT COUNTY

That members of the new hospital board will be representative of the entire county and not just of Richmond.

That the Supervosirs will propose to the next session of the State Legislature that election to the governing board of the hospital district be based on supervisorial districts.

Now what did the Supervisors think of these suggested promises? They apparently agreed wholeheartedly, for the matter didn't even have to be discussed at the hearing.

When the Supervisor's meeting began, our supervisor Jack Cummings took the floor and announced that this was the Board's policy. Walter Rugh and Neill Cornwall were there representing the local group.

What actually happened was this:

Before the public meeting, the supervisors and the local representatives closeted themselves in the back conference room and thrashed over the problem.

SMOKE FILLED ROOM

Yes, it was probably one of those "smoke-filled rooms" we hear so much about.

One point, however, to keep in mind. Although the local hospital district won't be on the ballot, officials of the local plan say it is not a dead issue. If the county-wide plan is defeated, then, the local plan will be brought out again.

A hearing on the local plan will be held some time in the future before the Supervisors.

DeMaevers Join Dramateur Group

Mr. and Mrs. Leighton De Maeyer joined the Dramateur group at their rehearsal at Bob Anthonisen's house Tuesday night. The group rehearsed again at the Anthonisen home last night.

Visitor at the last two Dramateur meetings was Sally Rinehart who teaches at Technical High School in Oakland, where she heads the drama department. Miss Rinehart handled the program at the Walnut Festival.

Reymanders Open Sweet Shop

The Orinda Sweet Shop has now re-opened as a family style restaurant under the operating ownership of the Reymander family, who took over the Village Kitchen some time ago.

The Reymanders — Mr. and Mrs., Jenny, Angela, Lillian and son-in-law Al Conrad, moved here from Manchester, Conn. They will continue to run the Kitchen as well as to operate the Sweet Shop serving three meals daily and after the theater snacks.

Home Personnel Subject for Talk

The Clipper Club will meet October 8 at the U. B. Smith home.

The speaker will be Dr. Mary Woods Bennett, assistant professor of Child Development at Mills College. Her subject will be Personnel Management at Home.

Residents Win Blue Ribbons At Flower Show

Jack Schneider of the Orchard Nursery reports that his firm took a first in hanging basket fuchsias as well as second in the modern suburban landscape exhibit. This latter display took up about 500 square feet of space, Schneider said, and was a complete small garden with lawn, flowers and shrubs.

The Orinda Garden Club garnered a blue ribbon for its garden exhibit. The Central Contra Costa Nursery Association also added another first and with it $250 prize money for an educational exhibit showing the steps involved in putting in a lawn.

The Lafayette Forum was awarded two blue ribbons for mantel and coffee table arrangements by Mrs. Roland T. Duncan and Mrs. Evan Jeffreys, and a white ribbon for a coffee table arrangement by Mrs. Douglas Kilbourn.

Mrs. H. N. Hansen won two blues for African violet entries.

Coach Mattson Talks About Von Brocklin

Last Saturday afternoon we had the opportunity to observe Stub Van Brocklin in action against Stanford.

Stub is the former Acalanes boy who has made good in a big way with University of Oregon under the guiding hand of Coach Jim Aiken.

BACK AT ACALANES

We will never forget him as a freshman. Five foot ten in height he weighed around 155 as compared to his present six foot two and 190.

Even as a freshman he had a terrific right arm with which he could whip a ball far and accurately. The difficulty was finding receivers who could hang on to the ball.

The thing that he possessed which was even more important than his potent throwing arm was an ambition to be a winner and go to the top. He was determined that he would play on a university club and equally determined to be a winner. Losing wasn't a word to be found in his book.

SHOWS UP VARSITY

As a freshman he was too young to play varsity and took delight in passing them dizzy in practice.

He had little patience with anything except perfection and woe to him who made a mistake. He had that rare ability which makes for a leader in that he controlled a team and made it rise above itself. His word in a huddle was law.

In basketball he could hit that hoop from all angles, one time hitting 32 points in a league game at Martinez.

BASEBALL TOO

Baseball found him in all positions and a long ball hitter. Equal interest would have made him a league baseball player but his heart was always with the pigskin game.

We well remember the varsity game with Diablo when Van came through in the final minutes of the game.

Stub was a sophomore quarterback that year and the game had been pretty much of an even steven affair wiht both clubs in position to score but falling down when the actual try came.

The game time was running out with but a few precious minutes to go when it became fourth down for the Dons, 25 yards out.

They came out of the huddle and lined up for a place kick. Everyone including Diablo and yours truly thought it was a fake with a forward pass coming up.

The ball was centered and bango it went sailing through the uprights and far beyond to score the three points that meant the old ball game.

HOLD THE LINE

Some of the older heads on the team questioned the judgment of Stub in trying the field goal but he told them to hold that line and "I'll put it through."

Punting was another of his strong points and he probably ranks with the best quick kickers ever in high school ball.

Against Diablo in 1943 he booted one out 70 yards and often as not he could punt out of bounds inside the ten yard mark from the middle of the field.

IN SERVICE

Stub had but three years of high school competition leaving to join the service prior to his Senior year. The Navy was his line of duty but through it all he felt that old desire for college ball.

As it turned out his desire became a reality when he worked out his necessary units while in the Navy and after his discharge, he went to Oregon along with George Bell and Bob Oas, two other ball players from Acalanes.

THE GENERAL

All opponents fear his rifle arm and generalship. He handles the ball with a smoothness that makes for another Frankie Albert.

Pass protection has been built around him to such an extent that Stanford has laid hands on him but once in two years!

Make no mistake about it but Norm Van Brocklin and George Bell were the margin of victory for Oregon in last Saturday's game.

Stub's passing and Bell's running marked the difference.

PROS ARE WAITING

The pros are anxiously awaiting his graduation date and Acalanes will have another grad in the top flight.

His record is phenomenal and he has only started to reach his peak. He has the ability plus the determination and confidence in himself to make good.

The Frosh of yesterday is the All American of today! Good luck Stub, all the way!!

Peerless Picks By Coach Mattson

The Old Professor had a good week when he hit six out of seven for a fat .857 average. We must confess he went a little easy but watch his smoke from here on in.

Cal over St. Mary's with just too much of everything. Oregon over Michigan, just too much pitch by Van Brocklin.

Washington to win from Oregon State, while Stanford posts a win over Washington State. Wet weather could make it tough.

U.C.L.A. TO WIN

U.C.L.A. to rack up its first win over Idaho, and U.S.C. to help western football while downing Ohio State.

HIGH SCHOOL

Antioch to smother St. Elizabeths while Oakland High downs Alhambra and Diablo in a doubleheader.

Acalanes to win in its third start over Tracy. There it is — see you next week.

Junior Varsity Ties Alhambra, Reserves Win

The Alhambra Bulldog Junior Varsity came to town last week to play the local eleven and when the clock had run its course the score board showed a 0-0 tie.

The contest was an even steven affair with the visitors having a first half advantage while the Dons showed to better advantage in the late stages of the game.

NOT ENOUGH DRIVE

Both threatened to score on several occasions but neither eleven could put together a sustained drive.

In a preliminary the Jayvee reserves scored a 6-2 win.

The Acalanes Blues tallied early with Alhambra scoring two points on a safety when the Dons safety fumbled a punt over the goal line.

The Jayvees were set to take to the turf again Thursday night against the Crockett Indians. Reserves were scheduled to play a preliminary starting at 6:15 p.m.

U. S. CIVIL SERVICE

Don Varsity Loses to El Cerrito But Shows Improvement over 1st Tilt

The Acalanes Dons went down 18 to 6 before a favored El Cerrito foe under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field last Friday night but only after coming within an ace of upsetting the dope bucket.

The Gauchos of El Cerrito tallied early in the first quarter on a 60 yard run by halfback Reed, only to have the Dons come back with a rush with fullback Pete Larmer plunging over from the four yard marker on a smash over tackle.

FOURTH PERIOD SCORES

Neither team converted and the score stayed tied until the fourth period when El Cerrito hit a pass on a four down from 25 yards out and added a third after a recovered fumble. Both conversions were blocked and the final score showed 18-6.

The Dons were in the ball game all the way, however, losing it once on the twelve yard mark and going to the two yard line in the waning seconds only to lose the ball on a fourth down fumble.

SEE IMPROVEMENT

The Dons came a long way over their earlier showing and appear to be rounding into shape.

Line play was greatly improved with Dick Laney, end, and George Cockerton and Jay Forni playing bang up ball at the guard spots.

GOOD DEFENSE

Lloyd Torchio and Pete Larmer displayed some good defensive work operating as line backers with Larmer also doing some good power driving from his fullback spot.

Kern Matlock was a consistent ground gainer and looms as a county standout.

Orlando Chiavini proved to be coming fast at tackle and will be a starter as a result of his good work when the team travels to Tracy for an 8 p.m. game under the lights of the railroad city.

Former Residents Here from Arabia

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Lunde and family, David, Paul and Jan, formerly of Lafayette and now residing in Saudi, Arabia, were visitors in Lafayette, last week, at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Browne and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dix. They attended the Fiesta here last Saturday.

The Lundes are on leave, and flew from Arabia to New York, where they purchased a new car and motored across the United States. On the trip they visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gaintner and family of Lancaster, Pa., who were also former residents of Lafayette. Mrs. Gaintner is the daughter of Mrs. Fred Mohler of Dewing Avenue.

The Lundes are staying with Mr. Lunde's mother in Vallejo, and will return to Arabia, shortly.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light" (Romans 13:12). This is the Golden Text for the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday, October 3. The subject is "Unreality."

Included in the sermon are the following citations:

The Bible: ". . . . We wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness" (Isaiah 59:9).

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Edy: "We are sometimes led to believe that darkness is as real as light; but Science affirms darkness to be only a mortal sense of the absence of light, at the coming of which darkness loses the appearance of reality. So sin and sorrow, disease and death, are the suppositional absence of Life, God, and flee as phantoms of error before truth and love" (p. 215).

Fellows Take Cooking Course

Cinnamon toast and tea was the first accomplishment in the boys' Cooking class at Acalanes, but the fellows have high hopes of learning the finer arts of cookery from Teacher, Miss Peterson.

The boys' cooking course is going over with a bang with enrollment high. The fellows slave over a hot stove three days a week and study calories two days a week.

Wearing aprons, the men are getting a little knowledge on how to wash pots, pans and dishes. Keep an eye on them, girls. It looks like a step in the right direction.

IF we fail to vote out the administration of confusion, of class warfare, of blind waste . . .

IF we fail to vote out the inept resident of the White House . . .

THEN the result will only be our own fault, and we will deserve — in payment for our indifference — the four more years of bungling red tape and defeatism that have weighed us down for the past sixteen years.

MILLIONTH
Postwar telephone added
How we've put in telephones almost three times as fast as ever before in the West

1. Here is Ashley Stone of Sacramento, California, whose daddy and mother got the millionth telephone we've added since V-J Day. To make this gain, we've actually had to install three million telephones . . . for many of our customers have moved their homes and businesses. Telephones we serve are now at an all-time high . . . over 3,630,000.

2. We've literally built a city spread over the West . . . hundreds of new buildings and major additions. New wire has been strung . . . new cables laid . . . an astounding total of three million miles. And we're rushing still more construction — half a million dollars worth, every day — to meet the public demand for service.

3. An amazing amount of new equipment of all kinds has gone to work. We've filled three times as many orders as were waiting on V-J Day. To add these million telephones, we had to get $400,000,000 of new money from investors. Orders still pour in, and our job is not yet done. But we're working at it mighty hard.

4. Millions of new working dollars . . . needed to extend and improve service . . . must come, not from telephone bills, but from thousands of people who put their savings to work in the telephone business. To attract these working dollars, we must pay a reasonable amount for their use. This depends on the sale of our services at fair and adequate prices.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT PAINT

How to Figure the cost of Painting

First, figure the square feet you want to cover. To do your bedroom walls, for instance, measure the distance around the room and multiply by the distance from baseboard to ceiling. Subtract area of doors and windows.

Then bring the figures to us. We'll show you the "Dutch Boy" line of interior finishes . . . the amount you need and total cost. It always costs less to use "Dutch Boy" paints. For they go on smoother, cover better, last longer, and leave a proper surface for repainting.

As your "Dutch Boy" dealer we have all the supplies that make painting easier and more fun. So see us for the answer to any painting question.

Dramateurs Start Junior Group

The Orinda Dramateurs are considering the organization of a junior group which would give young people between the ages of 17 and 21 an opportunity to handle juvenile roles in the senior group's productions as well as to present plays by themselves, according to president Mike Murphy.

By-laws of the Dramateurs prevent anyone under 21 from joining, Murphy stated; a separate youth group would contribute considerably to the entertainment at regular monthly meetings and the youngsters would receive valuable training at the same time.

Young people or their parents interested can contact Murphy in Orinda. If enough applications are received, organization will be started immediately.

Garden Club Exhibit Wins First Prize

Working in the Centeninal theme with a little antique wagon seat and an old wagon wheel set amidst the flowers, the Garden corner featured marigolds of yellow and bronze.

Garden Club members worked on the exhibit with a committee including: Mrs. Eugene Shurtleff, chairman, Mrs. Alden Macomber, Mrs. Edgar Stewart, Mrs. Woodburn K. Lamb, Mrs. Earl DeSoto, Mrs. William Fleager, Mrs. Robert Welsh, and Mrs. Edward Solinsky.

At the Club's meeting set for next Thursday at the Country Club at 10:30 a.m., the members will hear John Aiken speak on what to do with your garden in October. Following the meeting, the Club will have luncheon.
